Exemption from the Connecticut Insurance Identification Card Law is valid only while the vehicle is located outside the United States or Canada. If this vehicle or any vehicle to which this registration may be transferred is returned to the United States or Canada during this registration period, the insurance required under Section 14-12b of the Connecticut General Statutes must be maintained, and a current Connecticut Insurance Card presented at time of registration issuance. Connecticut law also requires the card to be carried in the vehicle while driven on the highways.
